

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

SANDRA PIERSON,

Plaintiff,

v.

THE BOEING COMPANY, a Delaware
Corporation,

Defendant.

No. 2:15-cv-01781-RSM

STIPULATED MOTION AND
ORDER TO CONTINUE TRIAL
DATE AND RELATED
DEADLINES

Pursuant to LCR 7, LCR 10(g), and LCR 16(m)(2), the parties jointly request that the Court continue the trial date and related case deadlines in this case.

The case is scheduled for a jury trial beginning February 6, 2017 and the discovery deadline is October 11, 2016. The parties file this stipulated motion seeking a trial continuance for two reasons. First, the parties are having difficulty scheduling key depositions during the remaining discovery period due to unexpected delay in third-party document production and witness availability. Plaintiff's hospitalization and recuperation caused a delay in providing stipulations to obtain medical records from her medical providers, resulting in Defendant's delay in taking key depositions of her medical providers. In at least two instances, Defendant is still waiting for Plaintiff's medical providers to produce her medical records. Sullivan Weiss Decl. ¶1, ¶2. Defendant will be prejudiced if it is forced to take depositions of her medical providers prior to an opportunity to review her medical records. Sullivan Weiss Decl. ¶3. In

1 addition, one key fact witnesses in the case, Mr. Lee Hand, the Boeing employee alleged to
2 have sexually harassed the Plaintiff, is out of work on an extended leave of absence related to
3 medical issues and is not expected to return prior to the close of discovery. Sullivan Weiss
4 Decl. ¶4. Mr. Hand's return to work date is unknown at this time and Boeing has not received
5 any indication from him regarding his intention to return to work in the short term. Sullivan
6 Weiss Decl. ¶4. Mr. Hand's Work History report indicates that he has not yet committed to a
7 return to work date. Sullivan Weiss Decl. ¶4. Second, the parties are in settlement discussions
8 and would benefit from additional time to explore settlement prior to the close of discovery.
9 Sullivan Weiss Decl. ¶5.

10 The parties are available for a trial on the following dates:
